Re: No Homework Days for 2017/18
Date: October 20, 2017

The Denville PK-8 school district will follow the lead of Morris Knolls High School and provide the following days as homework free/family days. The purpose of the program is to allow students time to step away from the rigors of school work and take some time for themselves. For the 2017/18 school year, we have determined that one weekend per marking period will be designated as "Homework Free".

The schedule is as follows:

- Marking Period 1- November 9-12- NJEA Convention
- Marking Period 2- January 13-15- MLK Weekend
- Marking Period 3- March 3-4
- Marking Period 4- May 19-20

Further, there will also be no major assessments or projects due on the first day back from Thanksgiving Break, Holiday Break or Spring Break.

We hope that these days become a tradition and provide some needed breaks for students and families.

Sincerely,

Steven A. Forte
